

 iProcureNet Joint Webinar

Building market demand

A free webinar on the role of market demand in innovation procurement: tools and techniques for joint and collaborative procurement

Join our lunch time webinar for a look at the role of joint and collaborative procurement. How can public buyers of innovation come together to present a credible demand for innovation to the market?

17 MAY 2022 • 12PM TO 13.15 CET

REGISTER AT IPROCURENET.EU/EVENTS

Programme

Introduction to iProcureNet

Alessandro Russo, Ministry of Interior France

The role of joint procurement: lessons from iProcureNet

Jozef Kubinec, Head of Works and ICT Procurement, Ministry of Interior of the Slovak Republic

Introduction to EcoQUIP+

Creating credible demand: the role of Joint Statements of Demand

Hayley Welsh, Director, Optimat Ltd.

Introduction to RaDAR

Ion Arrizabalaga, Innovation and Prospective Unit, AQUAS | Health Department of the Government of Catalunya

Collaborative procurement: the approach of the RaDAR project

Louis Potel, Head of International affairs & Innovation project coordinator, resah

@iProcureNet_EU

/iProcureNet

contact@iprocurenet.eu

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 832875.

An iProcureNet collaboration with

The logo for EcoQUIP+ features the word "EcoQUIP" in a blue sans-serif font, with the "Q" in green. A blue plus sign is positioned to the right of the text.

EcoQUIP+

Delivering Efficiency, Quality and Sustainability in Healthcare

@EcoQuipPlus

/ecoquip-plus

Hayley.welsh@optimat.
co.uk

The logo for RaDAR features a stylized graphic of a network or radar pattern made of blue and orange squares above the word "RaDAR" in a bold, dark blue sans-serif font, with the "a" in orange.

RaDAR

@RaDARPPI

/RaDAR

contact@radar-ppi.com